ODE

Written for the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America in New Hampshire

By Mrs. John Bell Bouton

Our fathers crossed the sea
In search of liberty
To worship God.
We, born and nurtured where
Faith is as free as air,
Retrace with thankful care
The paths they trod.

We linger o'er the page
Whereon, of saint and sage,
The tale is told;
We gather up each thread
That links us to the dead;
We cherish what they said
And did, of old.

Thus we, Colonial Dames,
Repeat our fathers' names,
Proud of the roll;
Grateful and glad that we,
Sprung from the bold and free,
Inherit liberty
By ties of soul.

Sisters of lineage pure,
Heroes whose deeds endure,
High thoughts inspire,—
Longings, resolves that we
Rival our ancestry,
Nobler ourselves to be
For each brave sire.

Register of Service.

Owing to changes in the eligibility lists of several states, some names which were formerly eligible are no longer so. This means, simply, that a candidate could no longer enter on these names, and they have accordingly been marked with a *.

The committee claims no accuracy as to dates of birth and death, such dates being approximate and serving only to identify the person.

Revolutionary services are in brackets.

The committee will consider it a favor to be notified of any errors.
